

Mrs. Phyllis Farias

Mrs. Phyllis Farias is an educational management consultant, trainer and counselor.

- With schools, she has been working in the areas of planning a new school, school management, policy planning, performance, appraisal of staff, curriculum formulation and evaluation of teaching methodologies
- For Principals / Teachers she offers consultation / conducts training programmes on creative teaching methodologies, curriculum development and planning, value education, communication skills, classroom management and handling children with problems, team building and group work
- For children, she conducts a variety of workshops such as reading and hobby enrichment activities, study skills, personality development, leadership education, public speaking, peer pressure reversal techniques, sex and family life education, and media education
- For parents, she holds positive parenting workshops on parental concerns and issues. These workshops are held both in the schools and other forums. These sessions are targeted at parents based upon the age group of children
- Ms. Phyllis Farias is a trained counselor and a certified practitioner of Neuro Linguistic Programming. She counsels children with problems and also does aptitude testing and career counseling

She is associated with:

- Life Member- Indian Society of Training and Development
- Life Member- Indian Society of Applied Behavioral Sciences.
- Respect for Life India
- Chair Person- Advisory Board Sheila Kothawala Institute for the Deaf.