

Training program for JHS teachers

A week long training program will be conducted for JHS teachers from 16 May 2016 by various experts from the education industry.

Trainers

1. Ms. Fatima Khader - Primary
2. Mrs. Phillis - New Teachers
3. Mr. Chandrashekar - Middle & High School
4. Ms. Meenakshi - Fundamental

Topics

1. Fundamental Teachers – Grooming Session – Theory of MI & Mind Mapping by Ms. Meenakshi
2. Primary Teachers – Creating a Mindful classroom by Ms. Fatima Khader
3. Middle & High School – EEPE – Enhance effectiveness of Teachers as professionals support developing innovative teaching practices by Mr. Chandrashekar

Trainers Profile

Ms. Fatima Khader

Ms. Fatima Khader has 10 years of experience in the education sector working extensively with children, teachers and parents in the areas of life skills training, personal development and child behavior management. She has innumerable training hours of working with children on issues concerning academics, relationships, temperament & has trained management students in communication, Interpersonal skills & Public speaking. Her passions lie in conducting workshops on personal safety, body awareness, human sexuality and CSA awareness. She also largely worked with adolescents on responsible behaviors. Ms. Khader is a certified parent coach under the Responsible Child Care Course and broadly conducts childcare programs for parents, teachers & childcare.

Ms. Phyllis Farias

Ms Phyllis Farias is an educational management consultant, a trainer and a counselor. She conducts a variety of workshops such as reading & hobby enrichment activities, study skills, personality development, leadership education, public speaking, peer pressure reversal techniques, family life education & media education for children. She is a trained counselor and a certified practitioner of Neuro Linguistic Programming. She counsels children with problems with that, she also does aptitude testing and career counseling.

She is associated with:

- Life Member – Indian Society of Training & Development
- Life Member – Indian Society of Applied Behavioral Sciences
- Respect for Life India
- Chair Person – Advisory Board Sheila Kothawala Institute for the Deaf

Mr. Chandrashekar

Mr. Chandrashekar, is a trained professional counsellor, handwriting analyst and behavior scientist. Mr. Chandrashekar began his illustrious career as a classroom teacher, in mid 60s. Armed with a Post Graduate Degrees in Education, Mr. Chandrashekar has been associated with prestigious education institutions of Bengaluru. He has served in various capacities as a classroom teacher, lecturer, resource person, HOD & Head of the Institution. As a qualified behavior scientist, Mr. Chandrashekar has developed aptitude test for career in English & Mathematics as a part of his doctoral program. He has designed practical and innovative 'teaching – learning' environments at the school & University levels, to facilitate intellectual and emotional development of children and young adults. Mr. Chandrashekar has continued to address the need for constant professional training in behavior sciences & academic fields to be in touch with modern trends.

Mr. Chandrashekar is currently engaged as:

- Counsellor (Education, Academics & Emotional)
- Resource Person (Soft Skills' Designing & Executing Training Programs)
- Consultant & Faculty (Universities, Education Institutions & Industries Pan India)
- Auditor & Assessor 'Skills' (Faculty, Students, Retail outlets of MNCs for Personnel & Processes, Psychometric Assessment Tools including Handwriting Analysis).
- Empanelled Soft Skills' Lead Trainer: KHSDRP Program: Karnataka State Govt.
- Empanelled Coach: Career Transition, Executive Coaching, Assessor AC & DC M/s Lee Hecht Harrison, USA
- Empanelled Soft Skills' Trainer & Mentor : IRS officers & Probationers, NACEN (GOI)

Ms. Meenakshi

Ms. Meenakshi is a Grooming Specialist, a diploma holder in Fashion Designing from JD Institute, Bangalore. She conducted several seminars for corporates and she was also on the panel of judges for Lakme Fashion Week.