

About the author - Vijender Sharma

Vijender Sharma is a history enthusiast and author. He brings out the lesser known aspects of Indian history and presents them without the academic jargon to make history interesting for the reader. He has published two books on Indian history. The first is Essays on Indic History, which delves into the lesser known aspects of ancient Indian history. The second is The Cusp Years: Five Hundred Years of Hindu Resistance, which brings out the courageous resistance offered by the Hindu kings against the Islamic invasion of India.

About the author - Mala Kumar

Mala Kumar is a freelance writer, editor and author of over 40 books for children. A former editor with the not-for-profit multilingual publisher Pratham Books, she has conducted many storytelling sessions and workshops on recreational mathematics in schools. Her books include Crazy Mazy's Maths Puzzles, Miss Laya's Fantastic Motorbike, Paper Play, the Happy Maths series, Rupaiya Paisa series and a biography of Sir M. Visvesvaraya. She writes mostly about education, culture, environment, lifestyle, people, gardening and the social sector.

About the author - Dr. Pradeep Chakravarthy

Dr. Pradeep Chakravarthy is a graduate of the London School of Economics and JNU. He has a PhD in history on the role of temples in the socio-economic and political life of medieval Tamil Nadu. He has more than 2 decades of experience, especially in learning and development. Pradeep's corporate experience (TVS, Cognizant, Infosys and McKinsey) aids his consulting on helping individuals and organisations change behaviour based on history. His mission is to help people understand present and future behaviour by understanding the past. He has authored 10 books with a focus on the culture of Tamil Nadu and how history can help us improve performance at work. He has more than 200 articles in magazines/newspapers mostly on history and its relevance to our lives today. He has also appeared on Netflix (Raja Rasoi), History TV, Discovery channel and TEDx as an expert in this subject. He has recently opened "Anantya in The Village" a heritage hotel in Alwar Tirunagari. He does heritage immersion tours here for children.

About the author - Harini Srinivasan

A former civil servant, she is an editor & a content management professional by day, and an author by night and can be found multitasking most of the time. Her short stories include The Unintended Boyfriend, New Beginnings, Arjun's Wife, How I Met Him and When Love Comes Calling. In 2020, during the lockdown, she contributed to a crowdsourced story, The Last Ones. About loneliness and human connections, the story was built chapter by chapter by writers across the world, brought together by the power of storytelling. She lives in Gurgaon with her family.