

Trainers Profile

1. Dr. Sarada Chandrasekaran

Dr. (Mrs.) Sarada Chandrasekaran is an accomplished educationist with over four decades of experience, having served as Principal and Director in leading CBSE and State Board institutions across India. As the current Academic Director at Whitefield Global School, Bangalore, she has demonstrated exceptional leadership in conceptualizing, implementing, and managing comprehensive educational programs. A master trainer for UNESCO and NCERT in School Health and Wellness, and a program lead for Cambridge International's PDQ, she has trained over 1,000 principals and 9,000 teachers nationwide. She has been a key figure in CBSE, serving as the City Coordinator for Bangalore East Zone, overseeing 112 schools, and as a curriculum committee coordinator for the 2023–24 session. Her pioneering efforts include integrating traditional Indian arts with modern pedagogy, such as teaching science through dance and geometry through sports. A recipient of multiple prestigious awards—including the "Legend of Education 2024," "Lifetime Achievement Award," and "Outstanding Educator Gold Award"—Dr. Sarada is widely respected for her commitment to quality, innovation, and inclusive education. She also holds an honorary doctorate in Ethical Learning and has been part of global programs like the Goldman Sachs-ISB Women Empowerment initiative.

2. Anita Avinash

Anita Avinash's journey is a testament to the transformative power of passion and dedication in redefining one's career path and making a positive impact on the lives of young learners and the community at large. Her involvement in managing preschools and Montessori setups in Pune and Bangalore since 2009 indicates a wealth of experience and knowledge in the field. One commendable aspect of Anita's approach is her focus on supporting working women who face challenges in maintaining their professional lives due to limited support for childcare. This demonstrates a commitment to societal well-being and the belief in the pivotal role early childhood professionals play in a child's development.

3. Anita Anil Gupta

Anita Anil Gupta, a seasoned educator based in Bangalore, is a maestro in early childhood education. With a rich background as a Junior and Senior KG Teacher, Centre Head, and now Founder/MD of Little Genesis, her dedication to shaping young minds is commendable. As a Director at Empowered Minds Edu Solutions and Parenting Mentor at Spartan Kids, Anita contributes significantly to educational strategies and parental guidance. Beyond academics, she's a versatile individual—excelling in content writing, public speaking, and even donning the hat of an Emcee. Anita's canvas painting skills, love for art, dance, cooking, and fitness portray a vibrant personality, making her a true inspiration in both the educational and creative spheres.
