GLORIOUS PAST REVISITED

'Abhikyah Niryatita', which means glorious past, was this year's theme of the annual day celebration at Jain Heritage School at Hebbal recently. The students presented a host of programmes and paid rich tributes to the cultural heritage of our country. A dance drama traced Indian history from the Mohenjodaro civilisation to present day Modi government. It vividly introduced the intricate cultural tapestry of the country. With the participation of nearly 1,100 students, the event instilled a sense of patriotism and pride among the students
