JAIN Heritage School students at IIMUN London

We are proud to announce that JAIN heritage School Hebbal students were selected to participate in the India's International Movement to United Nations (IIMUN) initiative held at London, United Kingdom.

The programme was held from 25th January 2026 to 1st February 2026, providing students with an enriching international exposure. As part of this initiative, selected students had the opportunity to gain insights into UK politics and governance, facilitated through an invitation from Mr. Bob Blackman, Member of Parliament for Harrow East. The programme aimed to strengthen understanding of international relations and foster dialogue between India and the United Kingdom.

The students were also hosted by Imperial College London, where they participated in a campus tour and attended a recruitment and academic information session, offering valuable exposure to higher education opportunities abroad.

In addition to academic engagements, the itinerary included sightseeing and cultural exploration, enabling students to develop a deeper appreciation of history, culture, and global cooperation.

The following members represented JAIN Heritage School during the programme:

Sl.no	Student Name	Class & Section
1.	Tejas Arun	Grade 8E
2.	Lahari Praveen	Grade 9A
3.	Aashrith Chakravarthy	Grade 10F
4.	Sheetal Keerthi Jain	Grade 10D
5.	Shloka Purushotham	Grade 11 Commerce
6.	Nagaratna Irappa Sabarad	Academic Faculty

This international exposure proved to be a meaningful learning experience, enhancing the students' global perspective, leadership skills, and cultural understanding. JAIN Heritage School congratulates the students and faculty members for representing the institution on a global platform and wishes them continued success.
